

The Haiti Action Committee presents:

Haiti Today

Occupation & Resistance

May 14, 2006 - While the presidential inauguration ceremonies were taking place two blocks away — at the National Palace — political prisoners standing on the rooftop of “The Titanic” lift the corpse of one of the victims. After ten of the demonstrators were killed by UN occupation forces (MINUSTAH), hundreds of prisoners continued singing and chanting optimistic support of their new President, René Préval. photo: ©2006 Randall White
